We provide the following services:

• assessment and treatment of the person to maximise their ability to work.

• assessment of home and work environments and make recommendations for equipment or adaptations which will support the person to keep working.

• provide the person with information and links to other key resources that may support them, eg. other professionals, other agencies (Job Centre Plus, Citizens Advice Bureaux, Healthy Working Lives), equipment resources, information about their health condition or information about legislation that may support them.

• complete AHP Advisory Fitness for Work Reports for employees, employers or doctors.

Referral to the Service

Referrals can be made by individuals, or, with the person’s permission, a referral can be made by an employer, family member or health professional.
