Are you a carer?

Information and advice for carers
in the Outer Hebrides

Are you a carer?

If you provide unpaid help and support to a relative, partner, friend or neighbour who is in need of help because they are ill, frail, have a disability, mental illness or have a substance misuse, then you are a carer and this leaflet may be of help to you.

Carers can be of any age, gender or ethnic background. Getting the right information and support could help you in your care giving role.

How NHS Western Isles can support you

We can support you in your caring role by:

- recognising and listening to you as a person providing care
- providing the opportunity to discuss your concerns about the person's illness and how it is affecting you
- informing you of services and support available in your area
- recognising your rights to be involved in the planning of discharge from hospital of the person you care for.

We can also signpost you to where you can find information on:

- welfare and benefit entitlements
- sourcing breaks and respite care
- access to support groups
- access to training opportunities
- advice on local support for carers.

Local support services

Health Improvement & Wellbeing

The Health Promotion Department offers free and confidential health advice on

- practical ways to improve your health
- access to support groups and organisations,
- access to information about health conditions and self-management.

For more details please call 01851 762017
(Monday to Friday, 9am to 5pm).

Health & Social Care

The Integrated Joint Board through health and social care may provide services to help the person you look after, such as personal care and specialist equipment.

They can also help you to get a break from your caring tasks, such as short breaks and respite. You may be entitled to a Carers' Assessment that looks at what your needs are as a carer.

These can be accessed via:

- your own GP practice or Community Nursing team
- hospital healthcare staff following hospital admission
- Occupational Therapy - tel. 01851 704704
- Social Work Services - tel. 01851 600501 or visit: www.cne-siar.gov.uk
